Lesson:

This week we teach how to Ask Permission.

First – Say the steps and have your child(ren) repeat them after you. You can create hand gestures to go along with the steps, which help the children remember. When at home, talk about ways to Ask Permission, without the step of raising your hand.

Second – Talk about the reasons and situations when it is important to Ask Permission.

Third – Practice. Role play a time when your child would need to Ask Permission. For example, if they would like to go outside and play, they need to ask the question nicely and wait for the answer.

The following page has a printable poster of Ask Permission.
