

Parent Tip – Week 6

Purpose:

We want to teach our child(ren) to Accept Feedback. Feedback is intended to help. When they Accept Feedback, they will make fewer mistakes and be more successful in life.

Tip:

Rewards are a positive reinforcement for a behavior we want. Notice the behavior you like and pair it with an appropriate reward. Rewards do not have to cost money. They can be a freedom, like not having to do a chore. They can be time, like 20 extra minutes of screen time. They can also be privilege, like getting to pick dessert. Be clear when giving your reward. You could say, "Because you Accepted my Feedback and corrected your spelling right away, you will get to use your device an extra 10 minutes today."
