

Parent Tip – Week 3

Purpose:

We want to teach our child(ren) to Get the Teacher's/Person's Attention respectfully. When children Get other's Attention without interrupting, they are more likely to receive the Attention they want. And, they will get along better with others.

Tip:

Research shows that children appreciate reasons and effective parents and teachers give reasons. Reasons are important because they motivate children.

The best reasons show the child the relationship between his/her behavior and what happens as a result of the behavior.

When your child is correctly Getting your Attention say, "Getting my Attention by looking at me and waiting quietly really shows respect and will help us get along better."
